

Research evolution: negative preliminary result to current empirical study

Historical / preliminary programme

Primary dissertation

Historical results are shown as research-development evidence and are not pooled with the primary study.